

About Us

This website is the speaking voice for all the people who are continuously suffering and are deprived in this world by the oppressing class or tyrant rulers of their respective country. It is of great sadness that 99 percent of the world population is deprived of their natural rights by only 1 percent of the population. We wish to remind the oppressed and deprived that the final victory is for them and to achieve so what they should do. And also to make them realize what has brought them to this situation in the first place.

We declare ourselves as only the truth speakers and only and only the servant of the almighty creator. We shall not change our hearts and minds for petty gains and will only search and speak the truth from logic and studies even if it goes against our personal gains and becomes the cause of our own destruction.

As we look into today's world we see that the human being of this world are divided or has divided themselves into countries, continents, tribes and what not. We have also divided ourselves by bringing in culture, religion, race, sex, money and etc. Is it supposed to be like this? We wish to unite the entire world in harmony as one family and make this world a paradise on earth.

Except a minute number of people most of the inhabitants of world believes that there is a creator (we did not just pop out of nowhere). All the existing major religions are in agreement with this fact. Different religions may have given different names to the Creator and may have derived many forms for his existence. But we wish to take one thing that is common between all the major religions, and that is there is one and only one Creator. He is absolute and eternal. He begets not, nor is begotten. He is incomparable (there is nothing like Him).

As for history of how mankind came to this world, we find that God created Adam and from Adam created Eve and were sent to world for time being. Their mission was to perform gracefully with the creation of God as per His guidance and eventually leave this world to acquire eternal paradise as reward for good or be sent to eternal hellfire as punishment for evil. Point to note here is that although the humans today are divided in so many ways, but our root goes way back to only a pair of great great grand parent (Adam and Eve). Another point which is of great importance is to realize that Adam and Eve are not two separate beings. Eve was created for Adam's back bone. This fact is very important to understand, because a great deal of world's problem is because men and women have started to think and behave like two separate beings. We wish to unite the husbands and wives into loving couples where they give each other the respect and honor that they deserve with their distinct qualities. As time went on and Adam's children grew in numbers and populated the world, slowly they forgot and got diverted from the actual mission. Hence there was a need to guide the misguided by sending someone with the original message. The first messenger that came was called Noah. Noah's consistent call towards the original message only convinced a few and so the entire world were flooded and drowned (including the disobedient son and wife of Noah) except of the few who boarded Noah's arc.

Abraham came as a messenger thousands of years after Noah's great flood, when people got derailed again. Abraham invited his people to the truth and as usual they refused. His people tried to burn him alive but God saved him. Finally he left his people and then he was blessed with two children Ishmael and Isaac, from his two wives Sarah and Hager.

It is a very interesting story how Abraham came to marry Hager and also helps us realize and solve one of the great problem of modern world. Abraham and his wife Sarah was passing by the land of a tyrant ruler who was of bad character and used to abduct beautiful women in his area to serve his animosity. When Abraham and Sarah was passing by that area, the ruler had Sarah abducted and tried his level best to abuse her. But every time he would try to touch her, God would freeze him up. Finally he gave up and threw her into jail. There she met Hager (a noble lady from Egypt) as she was also been thrown to jail for the same reason. They became good friends. When the king found out that Sarah is the wife of Abraham, he freed her. But Sarah refused to be freed alone. She instructed that Hager be freed with her as well. So they both were released. Then Sarah requested Abraham over and over to marry Hager so they can have children as Sarah was an infertile woman. Abraham had no choice but to marry Hager and was blessed with the child Ishmael. It is important to understand that Sarah and Hager were like sisters. They did not show jealousy or any indecent behavior towards each other.

God instructed Abraham to take Hager and Ishmael to the land of dessert (Mecca) and leave them there. He obeyed and left them in the middle of dessert upon God's mercy. Abraham settled with Sarah in Jerusalem and there he was blessed with another child Isaac through at a very old age. It was a miraculous birth.

Abraham dreamt that he was sacrificing his beloved son Ishmael for the sake of God. When he discussed his dream with his son Ishmael, he agreed to be sacrificed in the name of God. As Abraham was about to cut Ishmael, God replaced Ishmael with a camel and accepted the sacrifice. Now, the Jews claim that it was Isaac who was taken for sacrifice and the Muslims claim that it was Ishmael. They do so in order to prove that they are the chosen ones. What we wish to say in this matter is that regardless of the fact which son Abraham sacrificed, it is Abraham who made the sacrifice. The person who sacrifices is obviously greater and generous than the sacrificed. So we hope that this one dispute that is existent between the Jews and the Arabs over this issue will come to an end.

God also granted Abraham's prayer by sending prophet's within his children. Almost all prophets came from the progeny of Isaac since then except for the last prophet who is the descendent of Ishmael. Isaac and Ishmael can be considered to be the forefathers of the two nations Israelis and Arabs. Later these two divided themselves further more into two different beliefs. The children of Isaac became Jews after Moses and Christians after Jesus. Similarly the last prophets Mohammed's follower divided themselves into Shia's and Sunni's after his death. These four groups are the dominant number of people in this world. All of them are claimants of the right path. But it can easily be seen and observed that how all of them have shifted and drifted away from the true righteous path. They all have betrayed their respective God sent messengers. What we need to realize is that God is one and His religion is one. Whoever divides among the children of Adam is evil. All the messengers that walked on the face of the earth only proclaimed one eternal message time after time. We wish to help human realize this fact and enjoin in the one family of God. There shall be no distinction between rich and poor, white and black, Arab's and non Arabs. We all are children of Adam passing a testing face on earth. We were not here and we will also not remain here. This is just a passing phase which all of us need to overcome only by submitting our will to the will of almighty God.
